Grace College

Winona Lake, Indiana 46590

Dedicated to
Dr. Lloyd E. Fish

Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners,

nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the Lord, and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season;

his leaf also shall not wither;
and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.
Psalm 1:1-3

On September 17, 1976, Dr. Homer Kent, Jr. was inaugurated as the third president of Grace College and Theological Seminary. He is successor to Dr. Herman A. Hoyt who has retained the presidency since August 16, 1963. The formal inauguration ceremony, held at the Rodeheaver Auditorium, was attended by students, faculty, and friends of Grace. Invitations were extended to representatives from numerous colleges and universities across the continent. The audience, with faculty dressed in their gowns, hoods, and mortarboards, was addressed by representatives from other schools, government officials, and members of the surrounding community. Dr. Kenneth Ashman, Chairman of the Board, honored the new president with a bronze medal bearing the inscription of the College and Seminary Seal with the school verse, Ephesians 2:8-10. Following this presentation, Dr. Kent gave his inaugural address. Dimensions in Brass and the Concert Choir served as special music for the occasion.

Freshman Initiation

Initiation . . . what's in a word? According to Funk & Wagnalls, "initiation" is a word describing "the special instruction or ceremonial rites admitting one to some position, society, knowledge, etc." But according to the "victims" of the Frosh class, initiation was:

"getting a new hair style after two sleepless nights." (Connie Whitcomb)

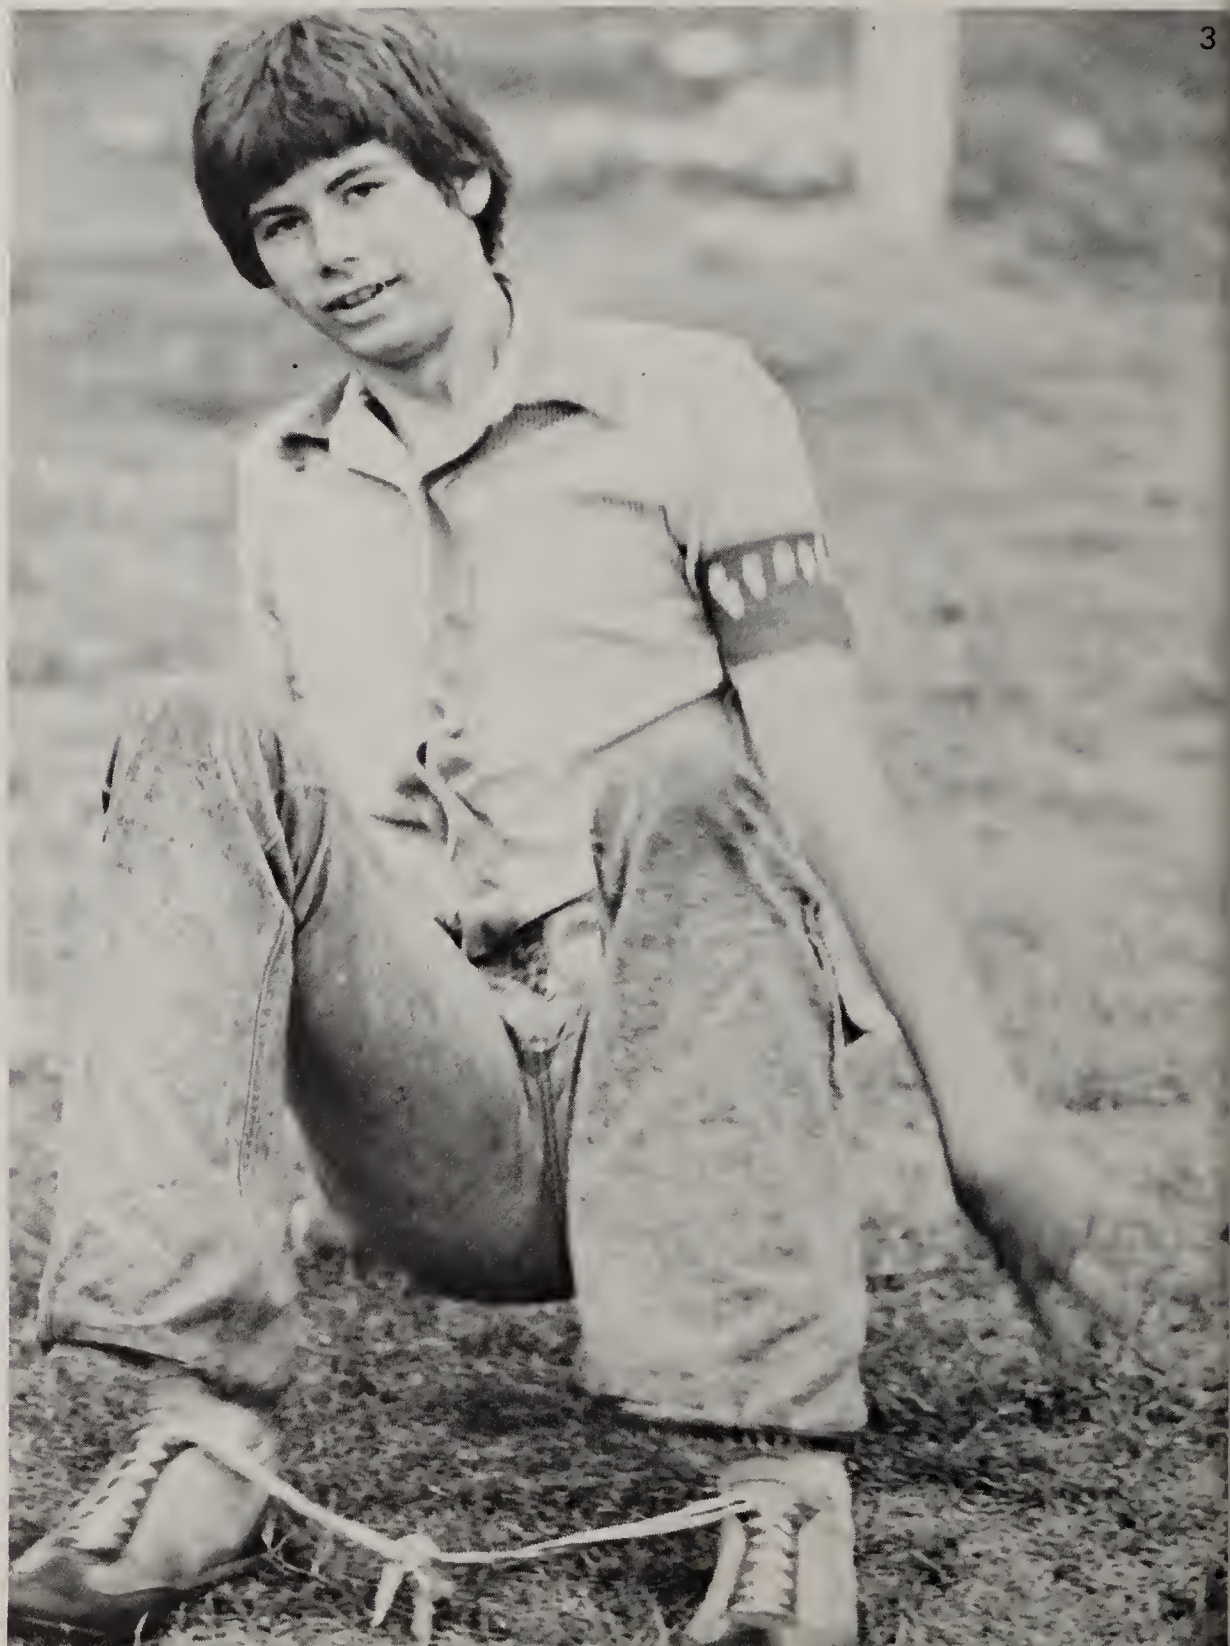

"sitting on the balcony watching the others go through it!" (Sam Sigg)

"loud banging on the doors along with complete humiliation." (Lisa Schultheis)

"something everybody should do once in their lifetime — not twice, but once!" (Craig Newkirk)

"the satisfaction of being physically fit after the exercises." (Pam McComas)

"a bad way to get up in the morning." (Jim Fry)

1. "Which way to the beauty shop?" 2. Early morning dew-bath prepares Jeannie Miller for her Freshman year. 3. Ray Shank is all tied up.

Spiritual Life Conference

Ken Poure, of Hume Lake Christian Camps, Long Beach, left the sunny warmth of southern California to minister to Grace students in cool, crisp northern Indiana. Speaking during the Spiritual Life Conference, September 20-24, Poure challenged us with the message of Jesus Christ.

1. After chapel, Poure explains a point to faculty members. 2. Getting into the Word and talking to God are a part of Spiritual Life Conference. 3. Ken Poure spoke during daily chapel services.

Fall Retreat

"Look, Boo-Boo! They're coming to Jellystone Park!" "Gee, Yogi, it must be time for their Fall Retreat." "Hope they bring some pic-a-nic baskets! Then we'll really have some fun."

And fun is just what GC students had on September 15 from 10 to 4 o'clock. A great turnout was reported for the day's activities, which included inter-class competition in softball, all-star football, volleyball for all, and mini-golf for free!

As far as the pic-a-nic baskets, lunch in the lodge consisted of the traditional meal and frozen pudding! Strength for the day's activities . . . all you could eat. Students enjoyed the day as it gave them an opportunity to cut classes without a guilt complex as well as get away from "Winnie Lake."

The spirit of Christian fellowship was evident as everyone took part in the games. To sum it all up, the Fall Retreat was a day of fun, food, and fellowship for all!

1. Prof. Fields intently watches the Junior-Senior baseball game. 2. "Ready or not, here it comes!" 3. Kevin Tschudy tries for a hole-in-one. 4. "You mean we're having hot dogs and baked beans again?" 5. Newton gets a hit for the senior class. 6. "Gary, there's a ball following your bat."

Homecoming Coronation

On Friday, October 15, the 1976 Grace College Homecoming proved no exception to the rule that excitement can captivate an evening. The decorations, the music, the audience, the attendants with their escorts, and especially the queen, were a part of what it took to develop the theme, "Magical Memories."

The audience waited breathlessly for the MC to announce the 1976 Homecoming Queen, Deb Keillor. Following the coronation, friends honored Queen Deb and her court at a reception held in the "Green Room" of the International Friendship House.

Homecoming Game

Saturday afternoon of Homecoming weekend found many avid Lancer enthusiasts turning out for the soccer game against Valparaiso. The cold, but smiling fans cheered the Lancers on to a 4-0 victory over Valpo.

Half-time activities included the Lancer on his gallant white horse followed by the arrival of Queen Deb and her court. Riding in sports cars, the girls were greeted by their escorts and presented to the spectators.

1. Junior Karen Darrough arrives at the game in a car driven by Ron Smals. 2. Queen Deb come to watch the Lancers kick their way to another victory. 3. Deb's father escorted her at the game. 4. Cheering fans aided the Lancer win. 5. Paul Henning kicks in another point for the victorious Lancers at the Homecoming game. 6. Dr. Lovelady, as The Lancer, parades the field with his horse. 7. Brother Tom aides sophomore attendant Amy Ryerson from the car. 8. Freshman attendant Deb Melcher greets students, parents, and alumni.

Parent's Weekend

Parent's Weekend, October 15-17, was a time to remember as parents, alumni, and friends returned to the campus for a short but sweet taste of college festivities. Events of the weekend included the President's Luncheon for the parents, a weiner roast for the alumni, a soccer game for the fans, and the coronation and reception of the Homcoming Queen.

1. Deb Keillor and her parents share an informal time at the Lamp. 2. The 1976 Homecoming Queen, Deb Keillor, has a smile on her face, flowers in her arms, and parents by her side! 3. Parents and teachers got a chance to do what they like to do best — EAT! 4. Annette Blackburn, with visiting family, enjoys ice cream at the Lamp. 5. Families were encouraged to tour the campus; this scene, the library. 6. Visitors view "Retrospect: The Fall of '76," a photo display by Brad Skiles. 7. Old friends meet again. 8. Freshmen Ross Hoffman and J. W. Simpson excelled their first season and were awarded Co-Rookies of the Year. 5. Captain Gary Woolman serves up his second straight MCC All-Conference. 6. Junior Phil Wickström returns an almost impossible shot. 7. Stan Hueni powers another over-head past his opponent.

C In '76

The Lancer netters capped their third Mid-Central Conference championship in four years for Coach Don R. J. Cramer.

Jon Hueni and Gary Woolman were named to the All-Conference team. Jon, Grace's number one man, compiled a 16-2 singles mark and swept the conference number one singles tourney.

Gary, winning his second all-conference award, wound up his college career by sweeping the conference number three singles tourney and earning a 14-4 record.

For the first time in tennis history at Grace the squad competed in the NAIA District 21 Tourament. The team came away with third place out of a record thirteen schools in competition.

1. Coach Shrock doing what come naturally—talking. 2. "Turtle" on for another shut-out. 3. Team spirit lives on. 4. Captain Don Byler stifles another Goshen attack. 5. Rookie of the Year, Tim Van Dyne shows the style which sent defensive records flying. 6. "Float like a butterfly, sting like a bee." Paul Henning leads the way to another victory. 7. "Hey Butch, the news sheet called for sunny skies today." 8. God's Word was the instrument to a successful season. 9. Senior John Boots puts the lo-o-ong ball into play. 10. "Come on defense, I'd like to touch the ball at least once today."

The Lancer booters finished their best season in history by gaining a 14-3-1 record overall and a 5-0-1 mark in conference play. There were many highlights throughout the schedule. These included: second place in the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) National Tournament, second place in the NAIA District 21, first place in the NCCAA midwest regional, and first place in the Mid-Central Conference with no opponent scoring against the strongest defense Grace has ever fielded.

Sophomore Paul Henning spearheaded the Lancer offensive attack, and is quickly being acknowledged, not just locally, but nationally. He was named to two All-American squads, placed on the MCC All-Conference team, and also the NCCAA District, Regional, and National Tournament teams.

A fine crop of seniors will be leaving the squad upon graduation. All-Conference Jeff Cahill and Denny Lapp, along with Greg Leigh, Don Byler, and Eldon Grubb will all be big shoes to fill come next fall.

Cross Country

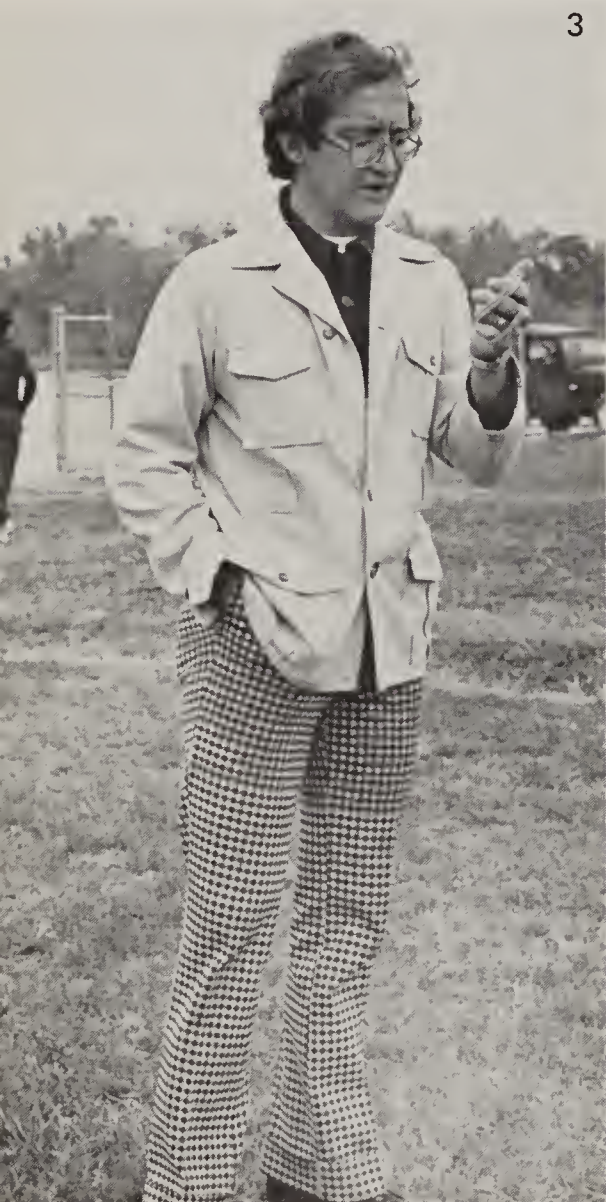

The Lancer Harriers ended their season on a fine note as they placed 11th in the NCCAA.

The meet was held on the home course.

Even though their first two runners were injured for most of the season, Coach Mark Skiles pointed out that "five different individual runners placed first in five meets, which shows the team's depth."

Pacing the Harriers this year was Don Dickey, who was voted Most Valuable Player and earned All-District honors. Also a fine standout this year was Garry Clark, who was voted Rookie of the Year.

The 1976 Cross-Country Team: (front, l. to r.) J. Boyd, R. Toy, D. Misner, D. Dickey, J. Hammock. (back, l. to r.) J. Smith, J. Campbell, G. Clark, L. Stombaugh, Coach Skiles.

1. Don Dickey earns All-District honors in NCCAA. 2. John Boyd caps off another fine season. 3. "I thought they were only going to be gone for thirty minutes." 4. "Who told me it wasn't a long course?" 5. Larry Stombaugh leads the way through the woods. 6. Jerry Hammock is off and running at the NCCAA finals at Grace.

Volleyball

1. It serves you right! 2. Do you need any help? 3. Coach Karen Imhoff and gang. 4. Senior Cathy Garrick intense before play. 5. Senior Lundgren shows her power. 6. Concentrating and prepared for action. 7. Missy Delk gives ball a love tap. 8. Lancerette engaged in battle. 9. Front line readies for setup. 10. Stark stretched for success.

Playing in the largest and strongest schedule in the history of volleyball at Grace, the Lancerettes sustained a 4-21 record.

It was a frustrating season for first year head coach Karen Imhoff as the squad defeated some strong teams like Notre Dame, Butler, Tri-State, and St. Mary's, but lost some very close matches to teams as strong or stronger than these.

Sixteen years of college varsity play will be missed next season as Kathy Griffith, Cathy Garrick, Val Lundgren, and Jodie Sargen all graduate.

The Hope in the Fall of '77 looks to four returning letter winners and a number of Junior Varsity veterans.

Who's Who is selected by the faculty and then approved by the national organization. The nine Grace seniors listed in the 1977 edition were nominated for their superior academic standing and record of service to the college and the community.

1. From Akron, Ohio, Nora Macon is an English major and journalism minor. 2. Gary Woolman is a business major and journalism minor from Chico, California. 3. A psychology major and sociology minor, Becky Kent is from Winona Lake, Indiana. 4. Cindy Ashman is from Wooster, Ohio and a psychology major and Bible and biology minor. 5. From Atchison, Kansas, Cindy Scott is a psychology and Christian ministries major with a Bible minor.

6. A business and Bible major, Jon Hueni is from Bremen, Indiana. 7. Gary Herbruck is from Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio and a business major and speech minor. 8. A social studies major and a physical education minor, Steve Nelson is from Auburn, Indiana. 9. From Camp Springs, Maryland, Mark Witwer is an English major and a general science minor.

Arsenic and Old Lace

"Sold-out" would be an appropriate adjective to describe Grace College's fall dramatic production of Joseph Kesselring's "Arsenic and Old Lace." On various evenings between November 12th and 23rd, Beyer Home, on Chestnut Street, became the setting for the early 20th century play.

The events of the play revolve around two old ladies who find older gentlemen with no families, do them a merciful service by putting them out of their loneliness, and then bury them in the basement "locks." A theatre critic nephew (in love with a PK), a nephew who is convinced he is Teddy Roosevelt, another nephew who has stolen Boris Karloff's face, a doctor who looks like the lone survivor of an explosion in a mattress factory, and the cops (from a part-time, twelve-years-on-the-force playwright to a lieutenant who just might have been Columbo!) complicate matters.

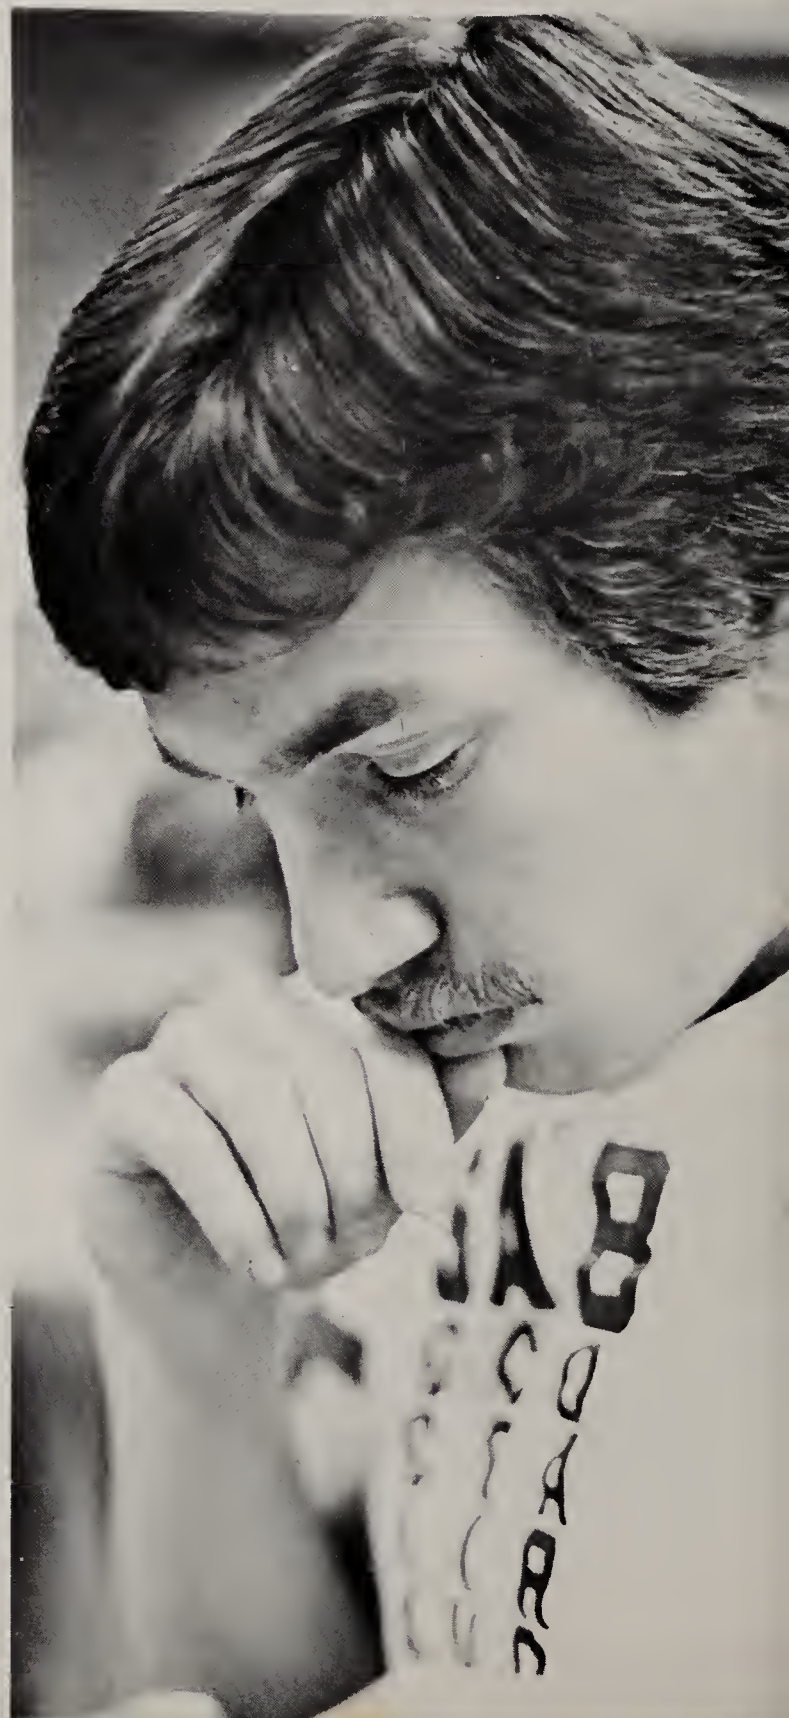

1. "Don't pretend you love me this much." 2. "Abby, you and Martha are so kind." 3. "If Teddy wasn't Roosevelt, he wouldn't be anyone!" 4. "Is this really happening?" 5. "I AM Teddy Roosevelt." 6. "But, I promised this one to Stevie Grill." 7. "Another body, oh goody!" 8. "Oh, no sweat. There are eleven more in the basement 'locks'."

Student Government

When one attempts to review the accomplishments of Senate; one must bear in mind that it is merely a recommending body. Catastrophic changes do not come overnight; they take time and the administration, though more than willing to hear recommendations for improvements, must weigh all the possibilities before taking action. We feel that through the efforts of Senate and really Student Government in general, an open line of communication has been maintained with the administration.

S A B Activities

When SAB president, Jim Loy, was elected he promised an activity every weekend. That promise was not an empty one. There was some type of social event on campus every weekend, whether it was sponsored by a class, an organization, or SAB. There were a variety of things to choose from. Not only were there the usual SAB-planned activities such as Homecoming, banquets, and May Day, but special events like "The Dating Game," "The Gong Show," and "The Hot Chocolate House."

The list goes on. Thanks Jim, and the Social Activities Board for a job well done.

1. The action grows lively at the Mr. Lancer contest. 2. Dave Misner and Eli perform at the talent show. 3. "Wait Until Dark" provided Dave Bogue with an opportunity to show his acting ability. 4. Nostalgia gave students an opportunity to dress as their favorite cartoon character, such as Foghorn Leghorn.

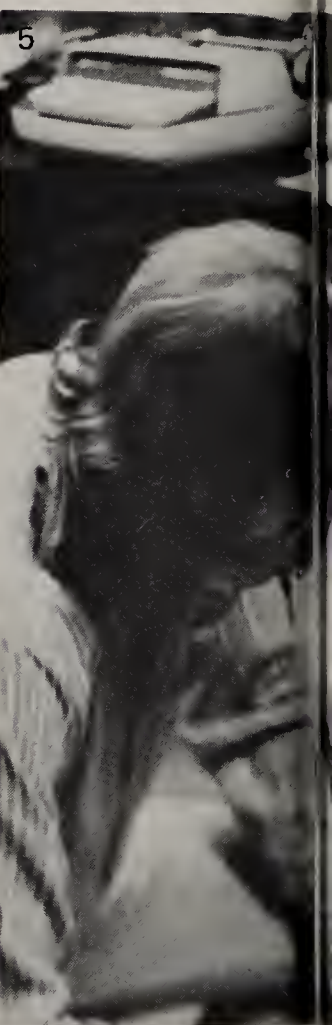

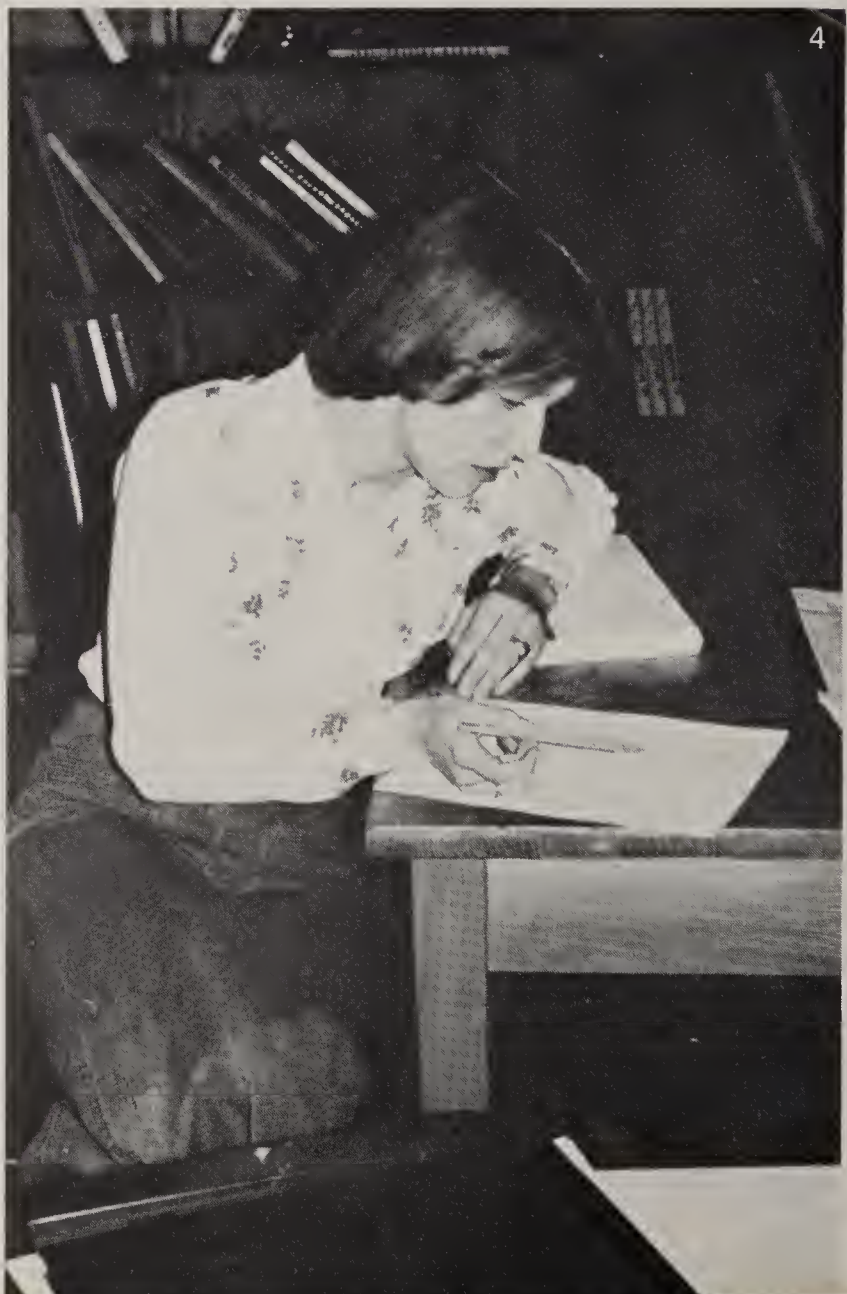

5. "Living it up at the Hotel Winona." 6. Debbie Deckard participates in the "Mixing Bowl." 7. SAB sponsored several banquets over the year. 8. SAB attempted to solve the ever-present problem of "boy meets girl."

Part of the job is preparing the 1976 Heritage for mailing. 6. Coordinating the entire book is editor, Liz Cutler.

20th Century Affairs Club

The 20th Century Affairs club was founded to promote awareness of events around the world. The club meets to discuss current affairs. Filmstrips are also presented, directed at situations in American society, and are analyzed in view of existing conditions. Attendance is required for all social studies and history majors, but everyone is invited to attend.

1. "Oh! I wish I'd read the newspaper this week!" 2. Twentieth Century Affairs Club: (l. to r.) J. Glaspy, J. Mikels, C. Carter, S. Franchino, C. Barkdull, R. Barnsdale, S. Wallace, S. Nelson.

Valentine's Banquet

SAB sponsored the Valentine's Banquet at the M and M Restaurant in North Webster on February 11. Following the dinner hour Dr. Love-lady's group, Guitars Galore entertained the couples.

1. Fellowship grew warm while food grew cold. 2. Couples enjoyed the sound of Guitars Galore. 3. The emotions of the evening are reflected in the decor of the M and M Restaurant.

Sadie Hawkins

School days, school days, good old golden rule days . . . when life was carefree and the girls chased the boys.

This year, Sadie decided to honor those happy days with "Sadie Goes to School." Girls asked the boy of their choice and the couples dressed appropriately. Each met for dinner in the dining commons, then went to the gym to play games such as Red Rover and Wink 'Em.

Freshmen Girls Ensemble

Gaining new experience, having fun and serving Christ in a music ministry, the freshmen girls sang in local churches as well as distant ones on weekend tours to Ohio and Michigan.

Dimensions In Brass

Dimensions in Brass, one of the recruiting tools for Grace, had one of its best sounding years. The group lost many graduating seniors but was still able to maintain its high reputation and quality.

A highlight of the year was going to Chicago to cut a pops record, financed by the First National Bank of Warsaw. Dimensions played seventy-five concerts this year, using their talent for the glory of the Lord.

Concert Band

Brass is an important section of the band.

Artist Concert Series

The Artist Concert Series this year offered a unique variety of speakers and artists to the students of Grace College.

In addition to the Indiana University Chamber Singers, a string ensemble, the Haddens' Piano Duo, Nevin Miller, and such personalities as Michael Fooner (criminologist), Joseph Ehrenberg's Carl Sandburg, and the Indiana University Percussion Ensemble appeared on campus.

1. In March, the Indiana University Chamber Singers appeared at Rodeheaver Auditorium. 2. A member of a string ensemble introduces their next number. 3. Frances and Richard Hadden presented their Peking Premiere Concert at the Winona Lake Brethren Church in October. 4. Scottish baritone, Niven Miller, sang in March in McClain Auditorium.

Wrestling Gets Prestige Boost

1977 Lancer Wrestling Team — Row one, left to right: R. Yoder, K. Tschudy, L. Huesmann, R. Toy, J. Karns. Row two, left to right: Coach Jones, G. Vance, J. Gridley, D. Misner, D. Duncan, L. Gridley, C. Walker, S. Blake, R. J. Tate.

The Lancer wrestling club proved what it was made of against some very seasoned veteran squads, but lack of depth hindered many matches. The squad compiled a 2-10 record and sent two grapplers, Roger Toy and Craig Walker, to the NCCAA Nationals.

Coach Phil Jones will see his dream fulfilled next season as the club will become an intercollegiate sport on the Grace campus.

The highlight of the season was Walker being placed on the NCCAA all-American team.

1. NCCAA All-American Craig "Tiny" Walker.
2. Wrestling the headless monster. 3. Rod Yoder prepares for a take-down. 4. The "Mean Bear," Denny Duncan.

*denotes conference

The Grace roundball squad began the winter with a 15-2 mark, but three straight losses at mid-season to three different mid-Central conference schools, Tri-State, Huntington, and Goshen, spoiled any goal of taking the crown away from Tri-State. The Lancers ended the year with a 21-9 record, while 8-4 in the MCC.

Doug Noll, a junior, set many new school records, including the most points scored in a season with 787. He connected on 50 percent of his shots from the floor and swished 229 of 257 from the free throw line for 89 percent accuracy.

Three fine seniors will be departing the squad and their leadership will be missed. All three, Greg Huston, Roger Haeck, and Steve Nelson have starting experience. Huston is the second top assist man in Grace history, while Haeck was known for his tough defense. Nelson was noted for his twenty-foot swishers.

Dorm Life

No matter how many hours you spend in the classroom, some of the hardest lessons are learned in the dorm. And some of the best times that take place are a result of the people you are surrounded by.

Dorm living is a mixture of good and bad, but mostly it's good.

Bible Conference

The Bible stands like a rock undaunted mid the raging storms of time.

Its pages burn with the truth eternal, and they glow with a light sublime.

The Bible stands though the hills may crumble, it will firmly stand though the earth shall tumble, I will plant my feet on its firm foundation, for the Bible stands.

Missionary Conference

At this year's conference, entitled "Where?", students were encouraged to serve God wherever they are. People around the world are in need of the gospel. Jesus says, "Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields, that they are ripe for harvest. Already he who reaps is receiving wages, and is gathering fruit for life eternal; that he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together."

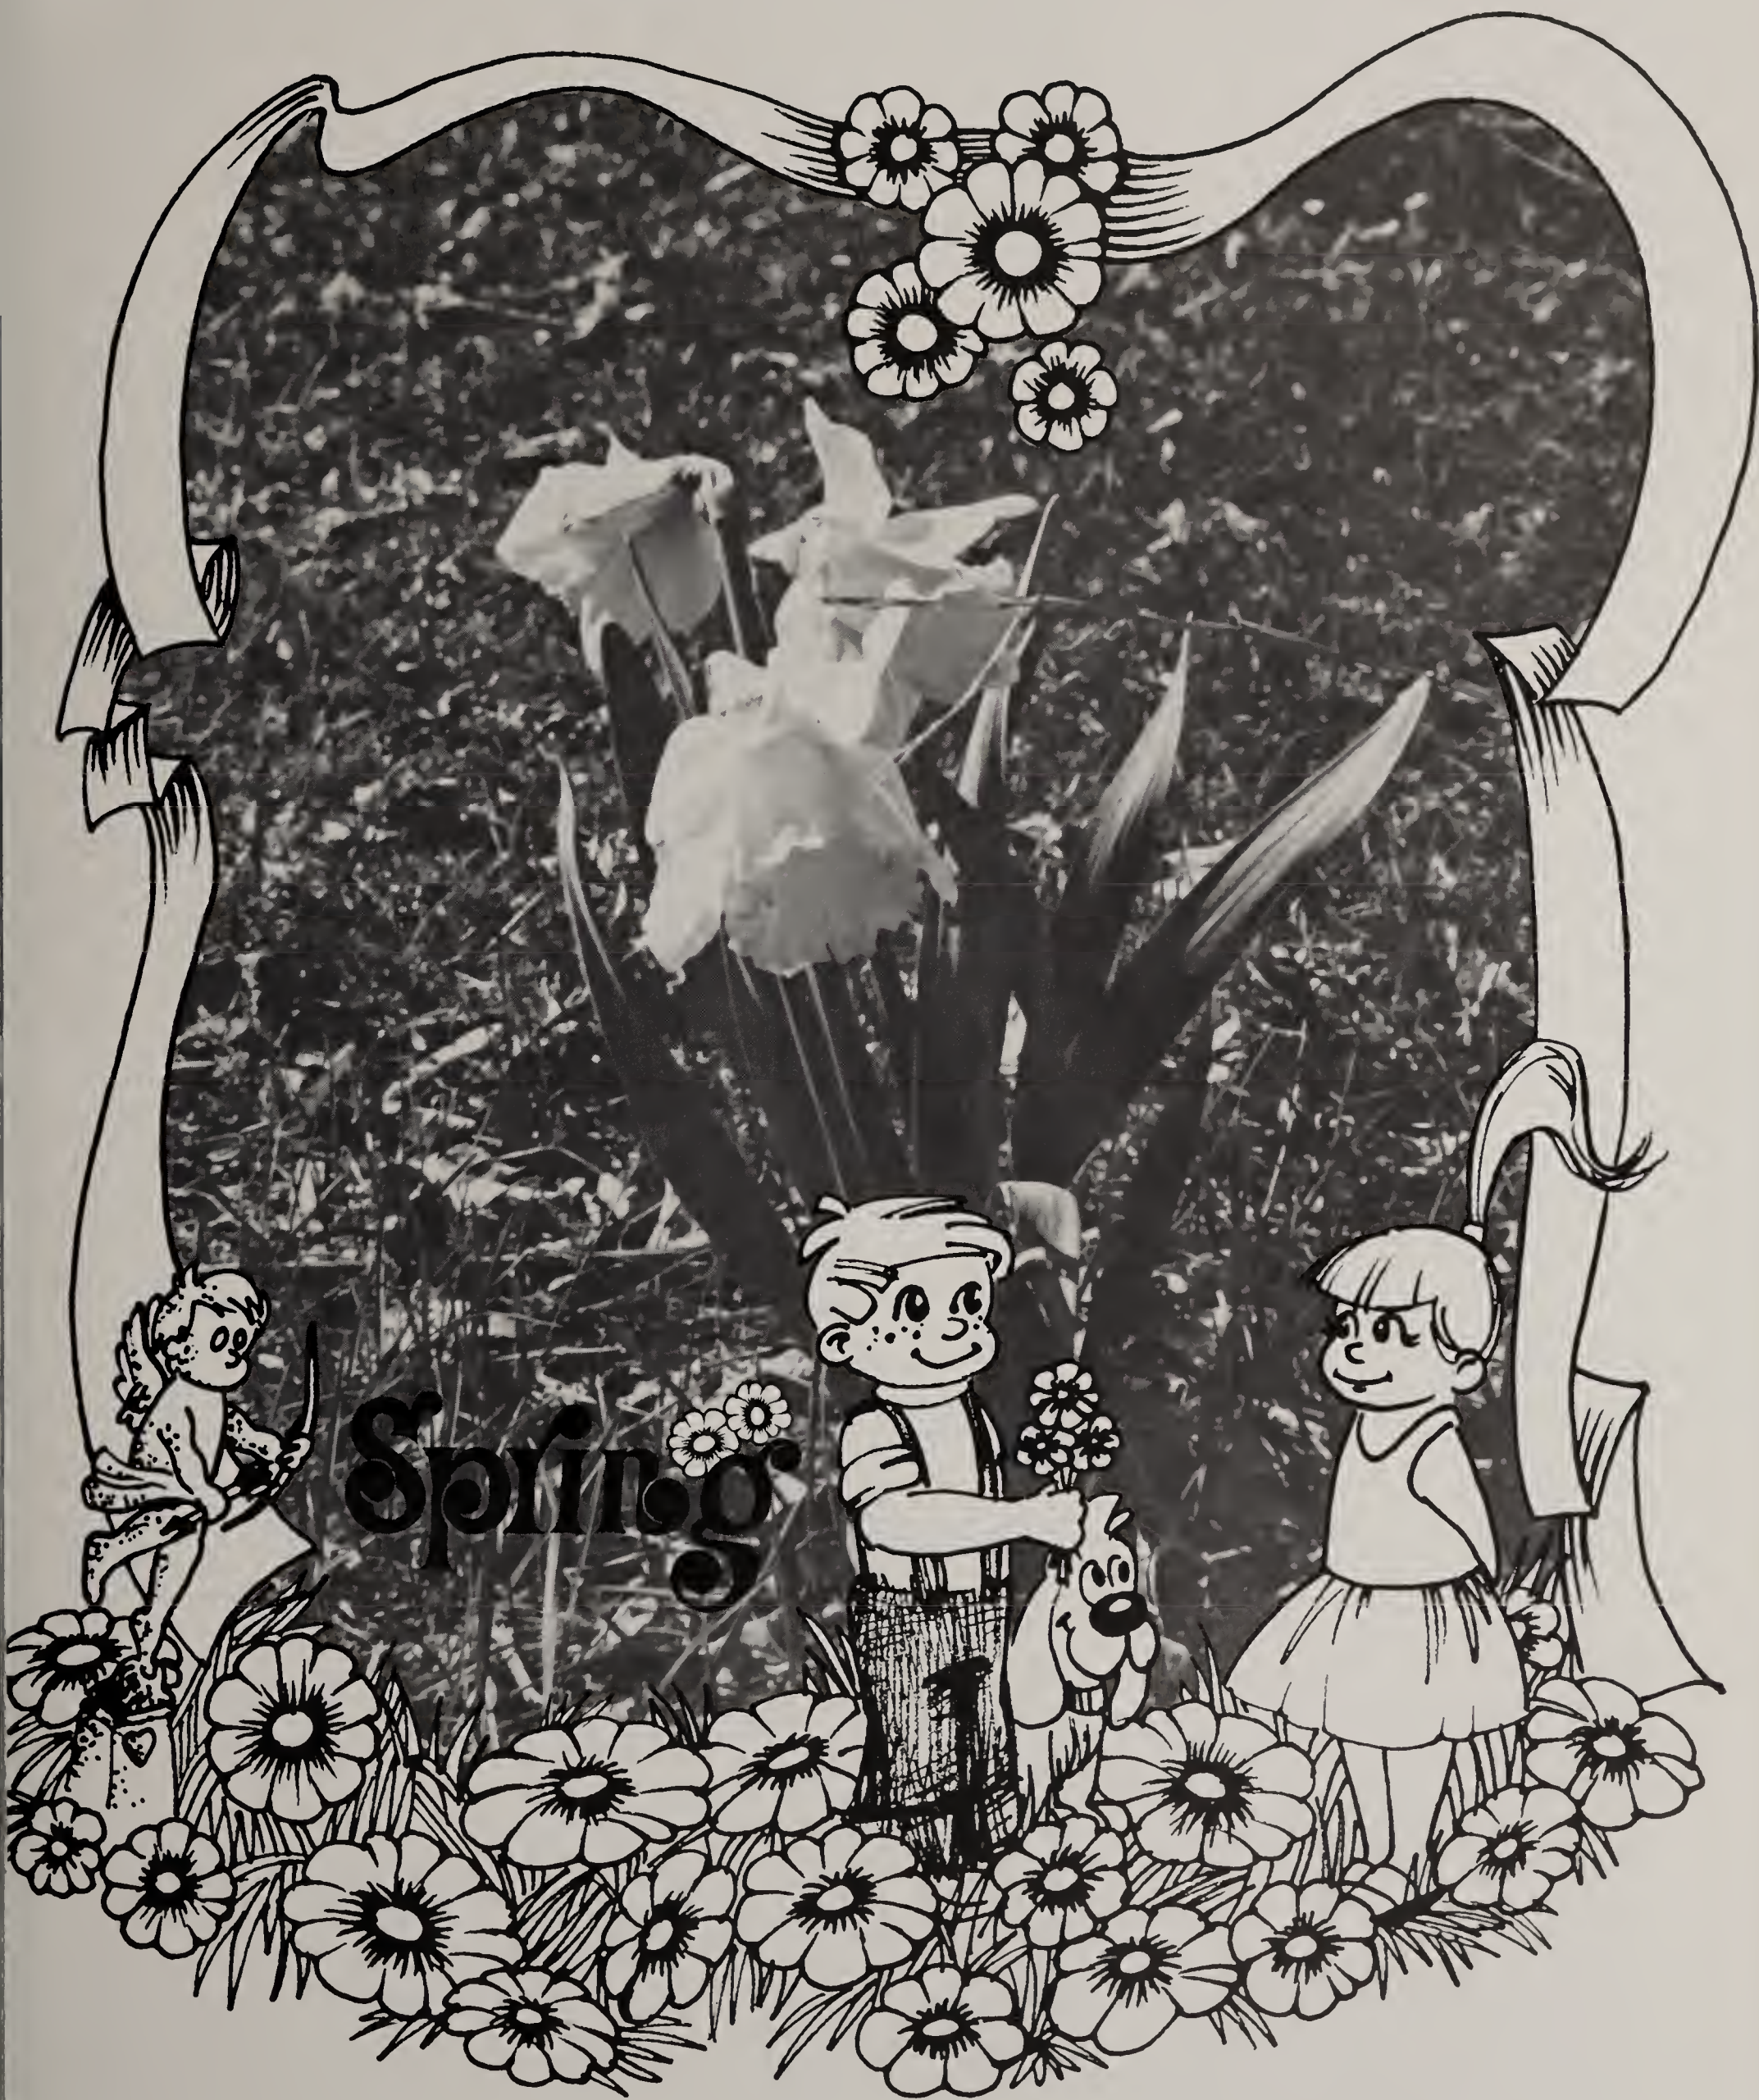

1. Workshops presented specific challenges for prospective missionaries. 2, 3. Don Hocking and Jim Nesbit gave lively and interesting presentations of the call to serve.

Chapel

Chapel brings mixed emotions. Thoughts like, "another chance to catch up on the sleep I lost last night talking to my roommate" or, "one more half-hour to cram for that big test at 11," run through the minds of many students. More often than not, chapel is a time of awakening, not physically, but mentally, to the truths that God wants us to know.

Day of Prayer

TRAVELING ON MY KNEES

Last night I took a journey

To a land far 'cross the seas;

I didn't go by boat or plane,

I traveled on my knees.

I saw so many people there

In deepest depths of sin,

And Jesus told me I should go

That there were souls to win.

But I said, "Jesus, I can't go

And work with such as these."

He answered quickly, "Yes, you can

By traveling on your knees."

He said, "You pray; I'll meet the need,

You call and I will hear;

Be concerned about lost souls,

Of those both far and near."

And so I tried it, knelt in prayer,

Gave up some hours of ease;

I felt the Lord right by my side

While traveling on my knees.

As I prayed on and saw souls saved

And twisted bodies healed,

And saw God's workers' strength renewed

While laboring on the field,

I said, "Yes, Lord, I have a job

My desire Thy will to please;

I can go and heed Thy call

By traveling on my knees."

2. The first part of the day is confession of sin.
3. Singing begins the second session - petition.
4. Praises and testimonies are included in the third session.

Company Of Grace

"Were You There?" was the production used for this year's drama tour. As the company traveled through Ohio, Virginia, South Carolina, Georgia, and Tennessee during the 10-day tour, many people experienced a brief glimpse of the characters surrounding the crucifixion.

A communion service in a hotel room, an attack of laryngitis, lots of Rook, sleeping in the van, a visit in Gatlinburg, forgotten lines, a traffic ticket, recovering a roof-bound Frisbee; these were a few of the things making this year's tour both meaningful and memorable.

The Drama Team packs the van for the Easter trip. 3. "Let's see, who was I? Teddy Roosevelt, Judas, Daniel Boone...?" 4. "If you blow that line one more time..."

Foreign Language Clubs

The French Bible study met weekly for fellowship and learning. Led in French by Jim Nesbit, a missionary to France, the group included MK's, French majors, native Frenchmen, and other interested students.

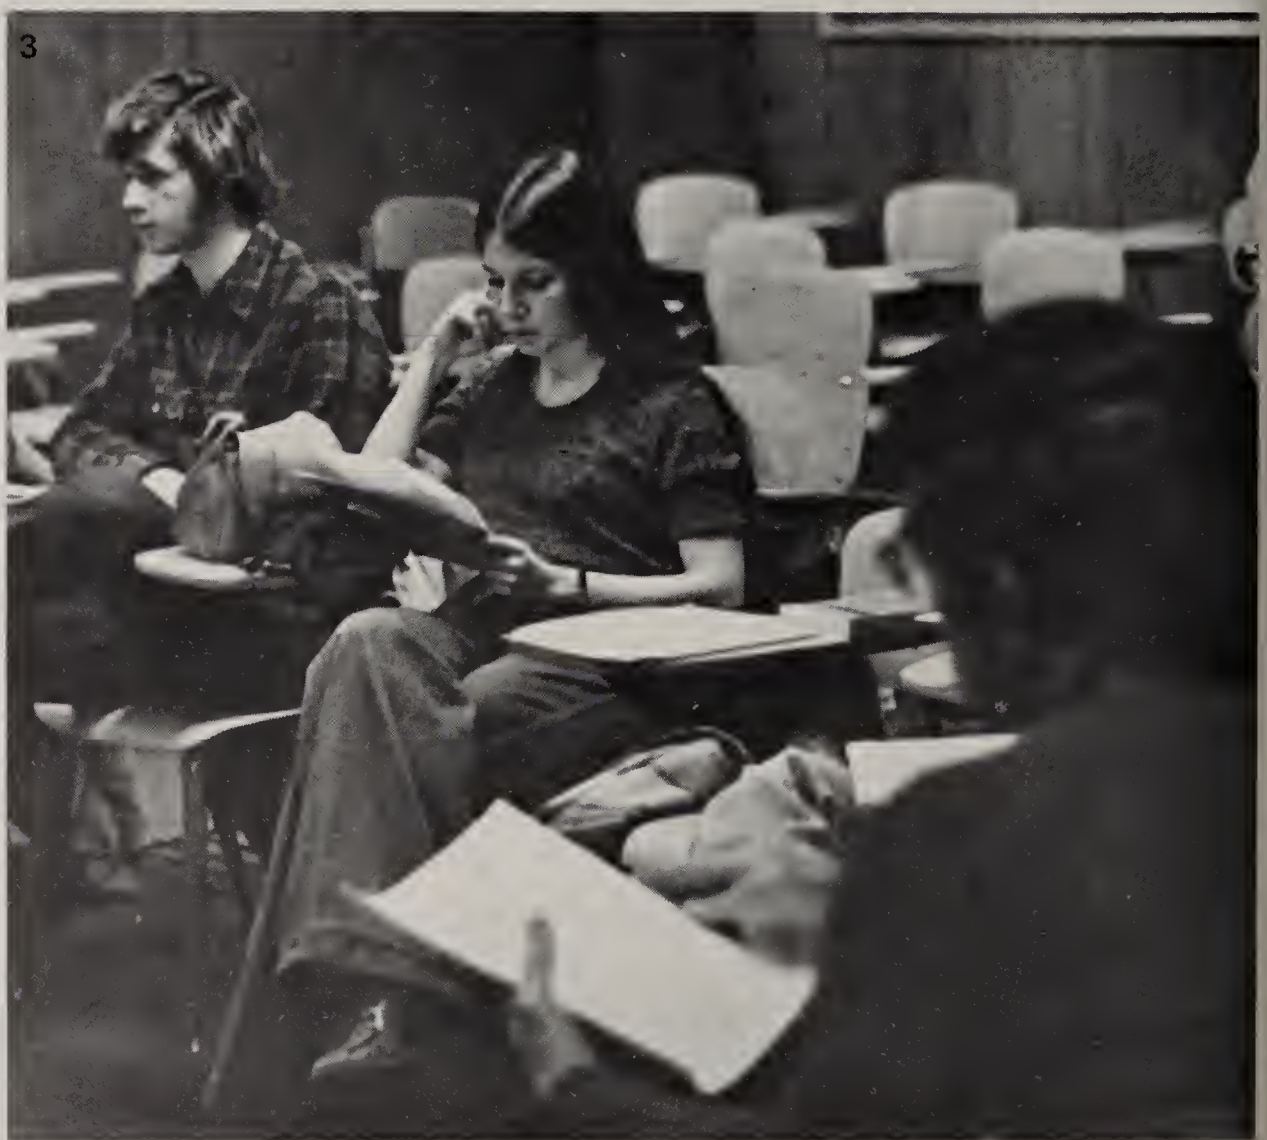

The Spanish Club gave students an outlet for using the Spanish language. Prof. Jones led the organization, which was involved in Mexican—American evangelism in the area.

Blood Mobile

Once again, the Red Cross Bloodmobile, sponsored by Student Senate, visited the Grace Campus. The fall clinic was dedicated to Dr. Norman Uphouse who has donated over 10 gallons of blood. When they came in the spring, the campaign was dedicated to Marion Scott, a local woman who has been a Red Cross volunteer for 26 years.

Grace Missions in Action

In GMA students seek to show love to their Lord through different branches of Christian service. Each participant desires to be a witness and blessing to area people.

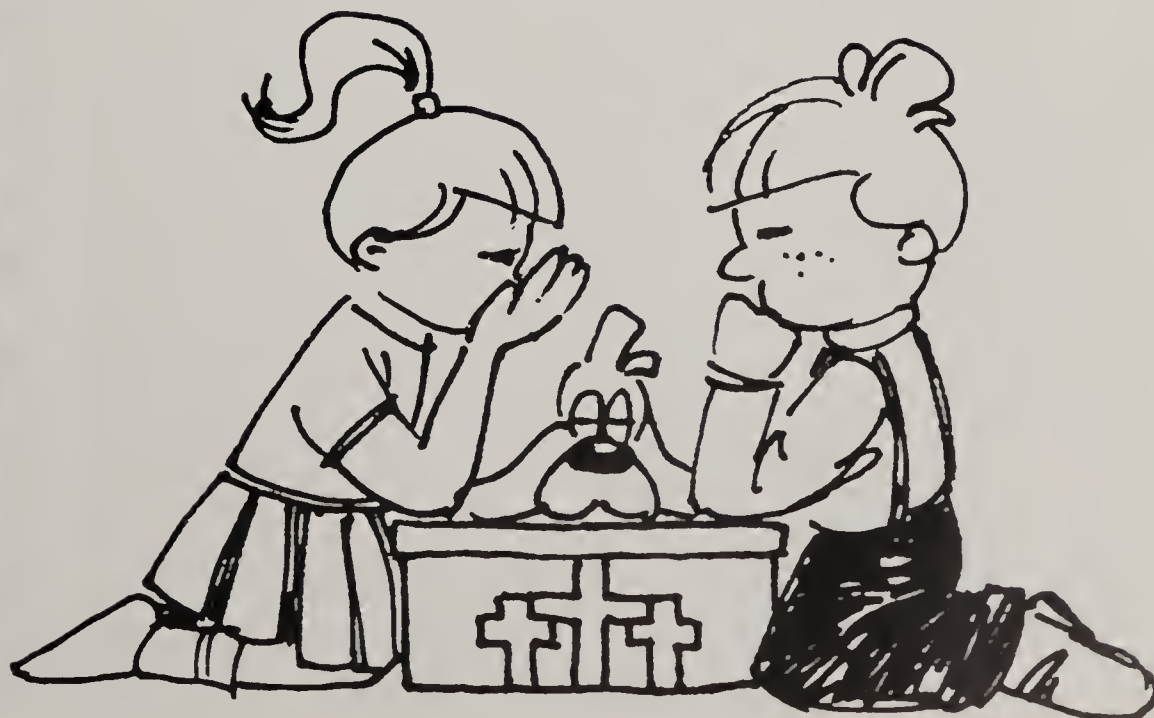

"Make me a blessing, make me a blessing. Out of my life may Jesus shine; Make me a blessing, O Savior, I pray, make me a blessing to someone today."

Christian Service

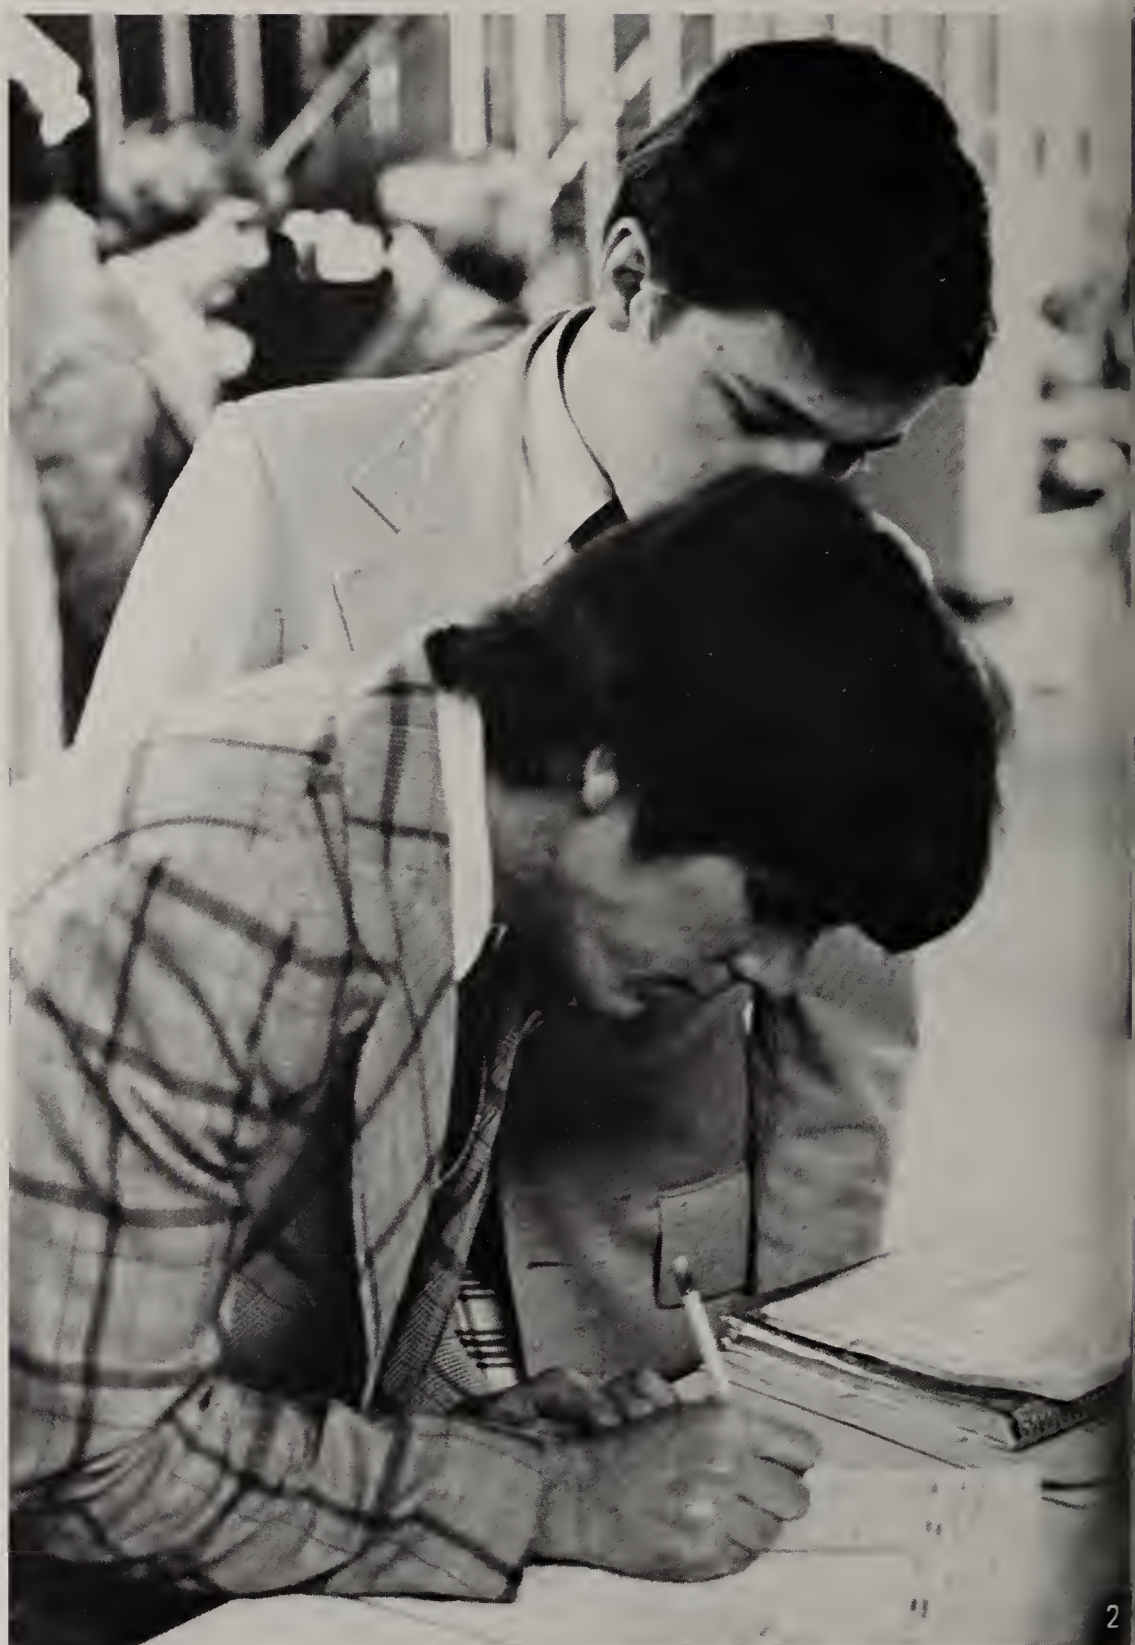

1, 5. Grace students enjoy visiting local nursing home residents. 3, 4. Many children are won to the Lord through Child Evangelism. 6. Fresh.-Soph. Banquet

From start to finish a banquet is unique. It all starts with asking that special person. This year the Freshman-Sophomore banquet was a highlight. Featuring the Good News Circle, it was held at the Heritage House in Ft. Wayne, on March 19.

1. The Good News Circle provided entertainment. 2. Out of towns are a necessary part of the banquet. 3. Flowers add the special touch. 4. A delicious meal was enjoyed by all. 5. Couples take part in the program. 6. The Good News Circle add to the circle of friendship. 7. Finishing touches to a beautiful evening.

Jr.-Sr. Banquet

The 1977 Junior-Senior banquet was held April 30 at the Hilton Inn in Ft. Wayne. Following the meal Steve and Maria Gardner presented a program of music.

1. The Jr.-Sr. is a special time for Lu Ann Waggoner and Bryce Inman. 2. Senior couples enjoyed the banquet put on in their honor by the juniors. 3. Millie Terrell and Steve Clydesdale listen to the music of Steve and Maria. 4. Good food brings a smile to the face.

CHAUTAUQUA REVIVED

An entirely student-directed production, the first in the history of Grace College; that is what the spring drama production was. Based on the turn-of-the-century lecture and amusement enterprise, "Chautauqua Revived!" presented excerpts from plays ranging from classic tragedy to modern-day soap opera.

Students from Prof. Grill's directing class oversaw the production that was presented May 2, 3, 5, 9, and 10. Included in the evening was Fiddler on the Roof, and Oklahoma, codirected by Sherilyn Smith and Mike Yocum; Death of a Salesman, directed by Warren Hewitt; As the Stomach Turns, codirected by Liz Cutler and Wendi Tschantz; Plaza Suite, directed by Rich Wroughton; and Antigone, codirected by Mary Hochstedler and Sylvia Paul. Mike Boze served as Prof. Grill's assistant director.

May Day

May Day, 1977, featured shortened classes, competition, a grilled steak dinner and an outdoor concert at the Hillside Chapel behind the Billy Sunday Tabernacle.

Fred Walker presented the evening concert, during which the May Queen, Kathy Kincarte, was crowned. Serving on her court were Jodie Sargen, senior; Jocelyn Seibert and Cheryl Wingert, juniors; Rachel Bracker and Elise Jacobson, sophomores; and Karen DeGraff and Lisa Schultheis, freshmen.

After the concert, refreshments were served in Beyer Home.

Festival of Fine Arts

The Festival of Fine Arts is an annual event that takes place in the spring. It gives students an opportunity to display their own work and view what others have done.

This year the art gallery was open with the juried student show. "Chautauqua Revived" played in the Little Theatre and music students presented several chapels featuring their talents.

Intramurals 1976-1977

The sun is setting over the trees, almost dipping in Winona Lake. The smell of burning leaves fills the air. In the pink-purple hue of the evening, a lone flag lies on the 50-yard line—a remnant of the game just played.

Players and fans huddle near the sidelines. Laughter fills the air as the game is recounted. Slowly, each departs to fulfill different obligations.

Tonight was the final game of intramural football. My team lost. We played a good game, but just couldn't pull it through.

Intramurals are a time of good fun and fellowship. I really don't feel as if we lost, I feel as if we won.

Softball

The Grace softball team was aided this year by the help of three able seniors. Jodie Sargen batted .500 and was the starting left fielder. Cathy Garrick won several games on last inning home runs, was the strongest defensive infielder, and an outstanding catcher. Val Lundgren completed the second season in a row with a hit every game (21 straight games). She had the highest batting average with .605 (23-38) and won MVP for the team.

Other outstanding players this year were Beth Kauffman (Most Improved Player), Lola Keezer (Rookie of the Year), and Susie Rike (Mental Attitude Award).

1. "But, Coach, I don't want to bunt." 2. Players relax while waiting their turn at bat. 3. Zesch throws another strike. 4. Big Bird awaits another hit.

ELPIDOS

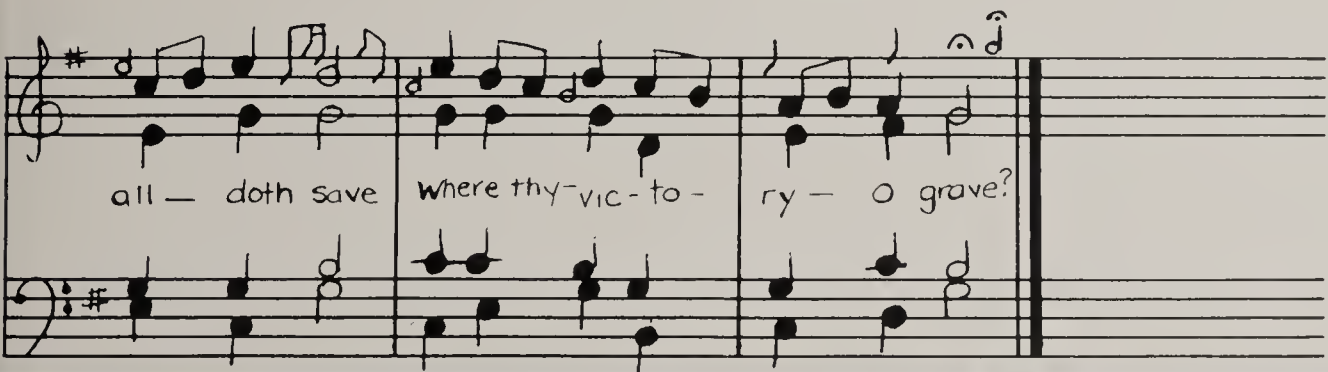

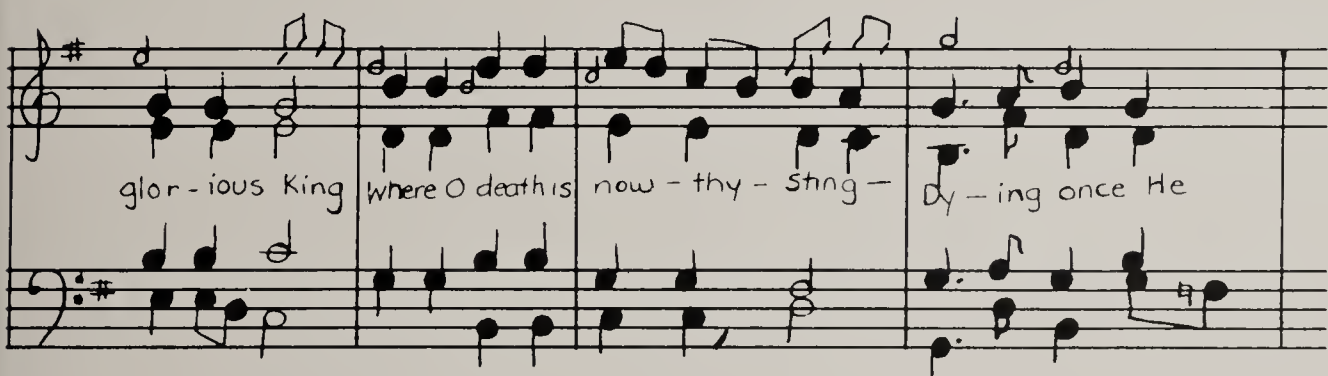

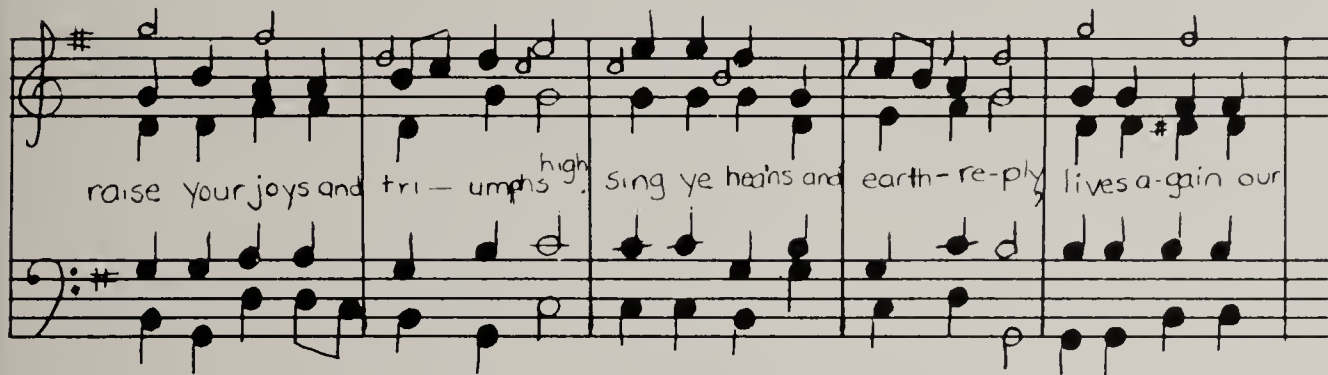

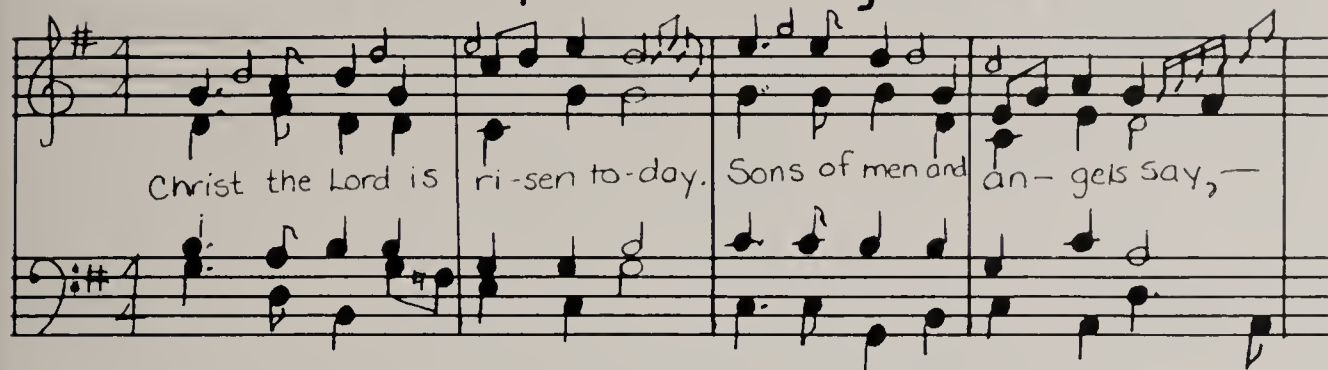

Gary Nieter

Christ the Lord is Risen Today

words by Charles Wesley music by Bryce Inman

This fifth annual volume of Grace Schools' literary magazine has sought to expand its means as a provision for student and faculty creative expression. The size has been increased by 50%, some four-color pictures have been added, and the number of contributors has doubled. The new name hopefully preludes further maturity of this volume and future ones.

ELPIDOS, a Greek word meaning "of hope," represents a Christian attitude which should pervade our lives and creative output. The despondency, isolation, and insecurity of modern literature and art forms should not be characteristic of our media of communication. We see hope here and ahead in the person of Christ.

ELPIDOS is not just a product; it is a potential. This potential found within our school should develop over the years as one develops his mind.

1. Staff members meet to evaluate contributions.
2. Editor of Elpidos: Karen Thomas.

COMFORT

Lord, at times I want so much to cry;
When I'm lonely, lost and cold.
Or when life doesn't bow to my every whim,
When I've lost my head and said too much,
Or too little;
When I look at my blundering being in shame
And say, "You fool."
How it comforts me to know
That you never think me so;
And how I need you every moment
To help me up when I begin to sink
To understand when I want to cry.

—Barb McClellan

Honors Banquet

Grace honored 41 students at the second annual Academic Honors Banquet held at the International Friendship House in Winona Lake.

Any junior or senior with a grade point average of 3.50 and above, who had completed at least two full-time semesters of work, was invited. The Academic Affairs Committee hosted the event.

Edward Flook of Richland, Michigan, Mary Hochstedler of Kalona, Iowa, and Dan Ramsey of Canton, Ohio, spoke on the topic of Christian Stewardship of the Intellect.

Those honored were seniors James Appleby, Cynthia Ashman, Bruce Barlow, Cheryl Burtoft, Robert Butterbaugh, Sheryl Coburn, Vicki DeBolt, Mark Ellison, Edward Flook, John French, Kim Gibson, Randall Groff, Gary Herbruck, Jon Hueni, Eugene Inman, Steven Lancaster, Gary Martin, Sylvia Paul, Dan Ramsey, John Rife, Viki Rife, Sandra Rowe, Steven Stauffer, Larry Tierney, Brent Wilcoxson, Gary Winey, Mark Witwer, and Richard Wroughton, and juniors Brett Boggs, William Campbell, Steven Clydesdale, Sarah Hawley, Mary Hochstedler, Merle Hochstedler, Cheri Jennings, Anette Johnson, Kathryn Lopez, Douglas Stauffer, James Strube, Pamela Taylor, and Charles Wenzel.

Dr. Vance Yoder, Academic Dean, presided as Master of Ceremonies for the event.

Dr. Yoder chats with the speakers, Dan Ramsey, Mary Hochstedler and Ed Flook, at the Honors Banquet prior to the dinner.

Graduation

Alone, I sit in my room, surrounded by books and boxes and remnants of four years of college life. The bareness of the once poster-covered walls reflect the emptiness in my heart. It's a strange feeling. I've reached the goal, that long-awaited honor of graduating from college, yet I feel as if I've lost everything in the world.

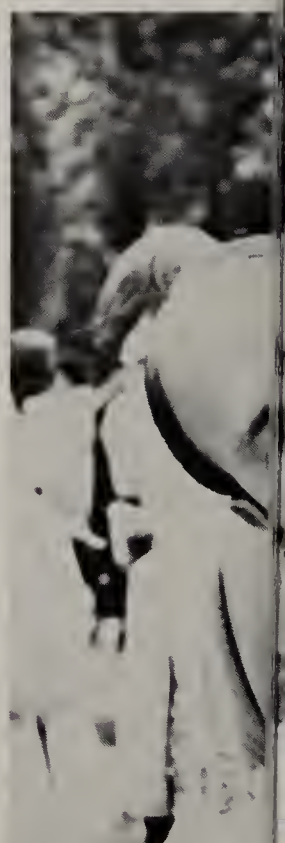

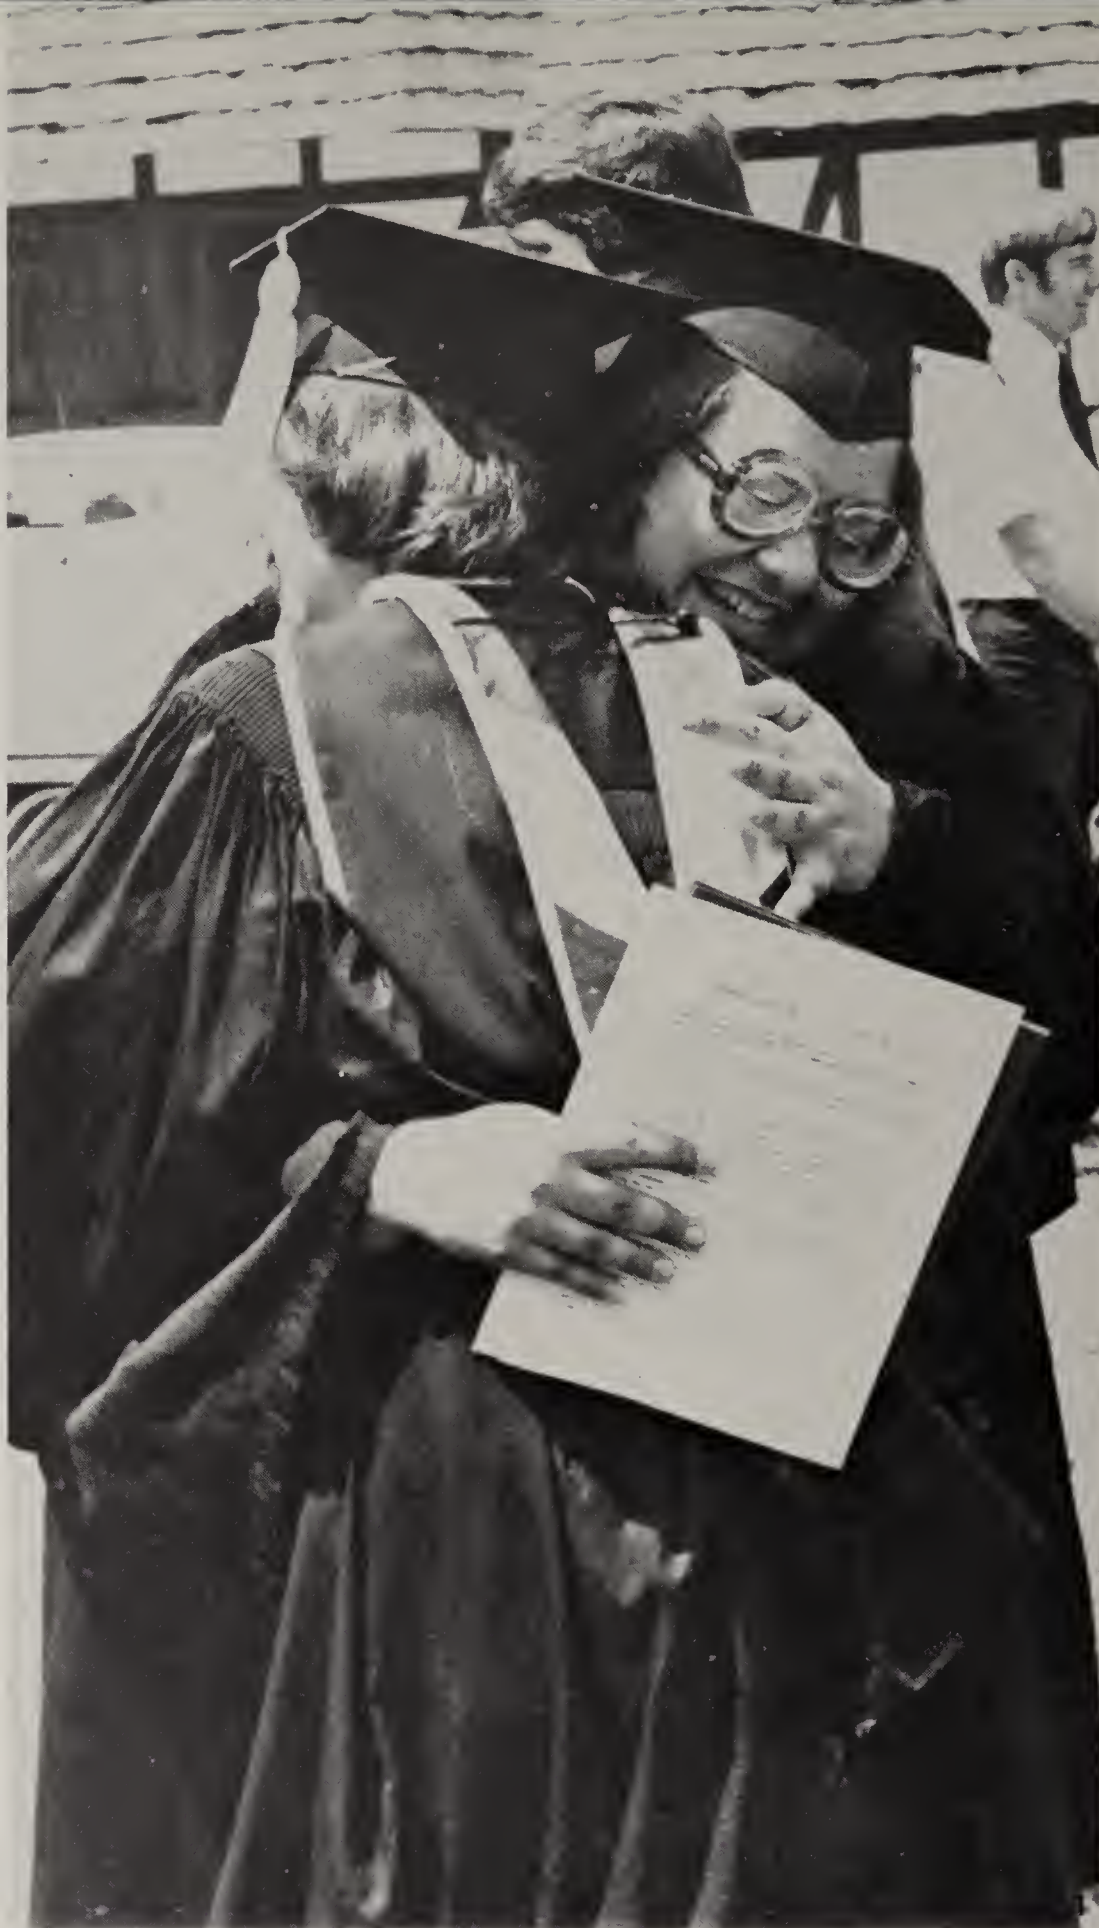

As I gaze at the red leather folder that encases the $12,000 prize it turns into an orientation schedule. Once again I'm a freshman at Grace. I don a green beanie and wander around the campus, helplessly lost, yet wide-eyed with wonder.

The sheet of paper turns into an exam, a quiz, a paper — one of the seemingly endless assignments of my college career. It becomes the program to that special banquet or the letter from that certain person. It's the list of rules, or announcements, or the truth God has been waiting to teach me.

Tears blind my eyes as one by one, special friends and happy moments parade by. Each add their own touch to the paper. The coolness of the tears streaming down my face awaken me to the present.

I move the limp, black gown aside and place the diploma in a box and close the flaps. I'm moving into my apartment this afternoon. I can't go back. I must go forward.

After all, commencement is not an end, it's a beginning.

1. Graduation is a time for remembering the good times. 2. Seniors start the walk down the aisle of life. 3. Four years of work are finally over! 4. Friends and family gather in the Billy Sunday Tabernacle for the occasion. 5. Mrs. Saunders receives congratulations from her husband on her graduation from the one year seminary program. 6. The choir sings together for the last time at baccalaureate and commencement.

Gospel Teams

"Message of Love" spread the word of His love during spring break in Ohio and Pennsylvania. Later in the semester they made weekend trips to Michigan, Iowa, and Indiana.

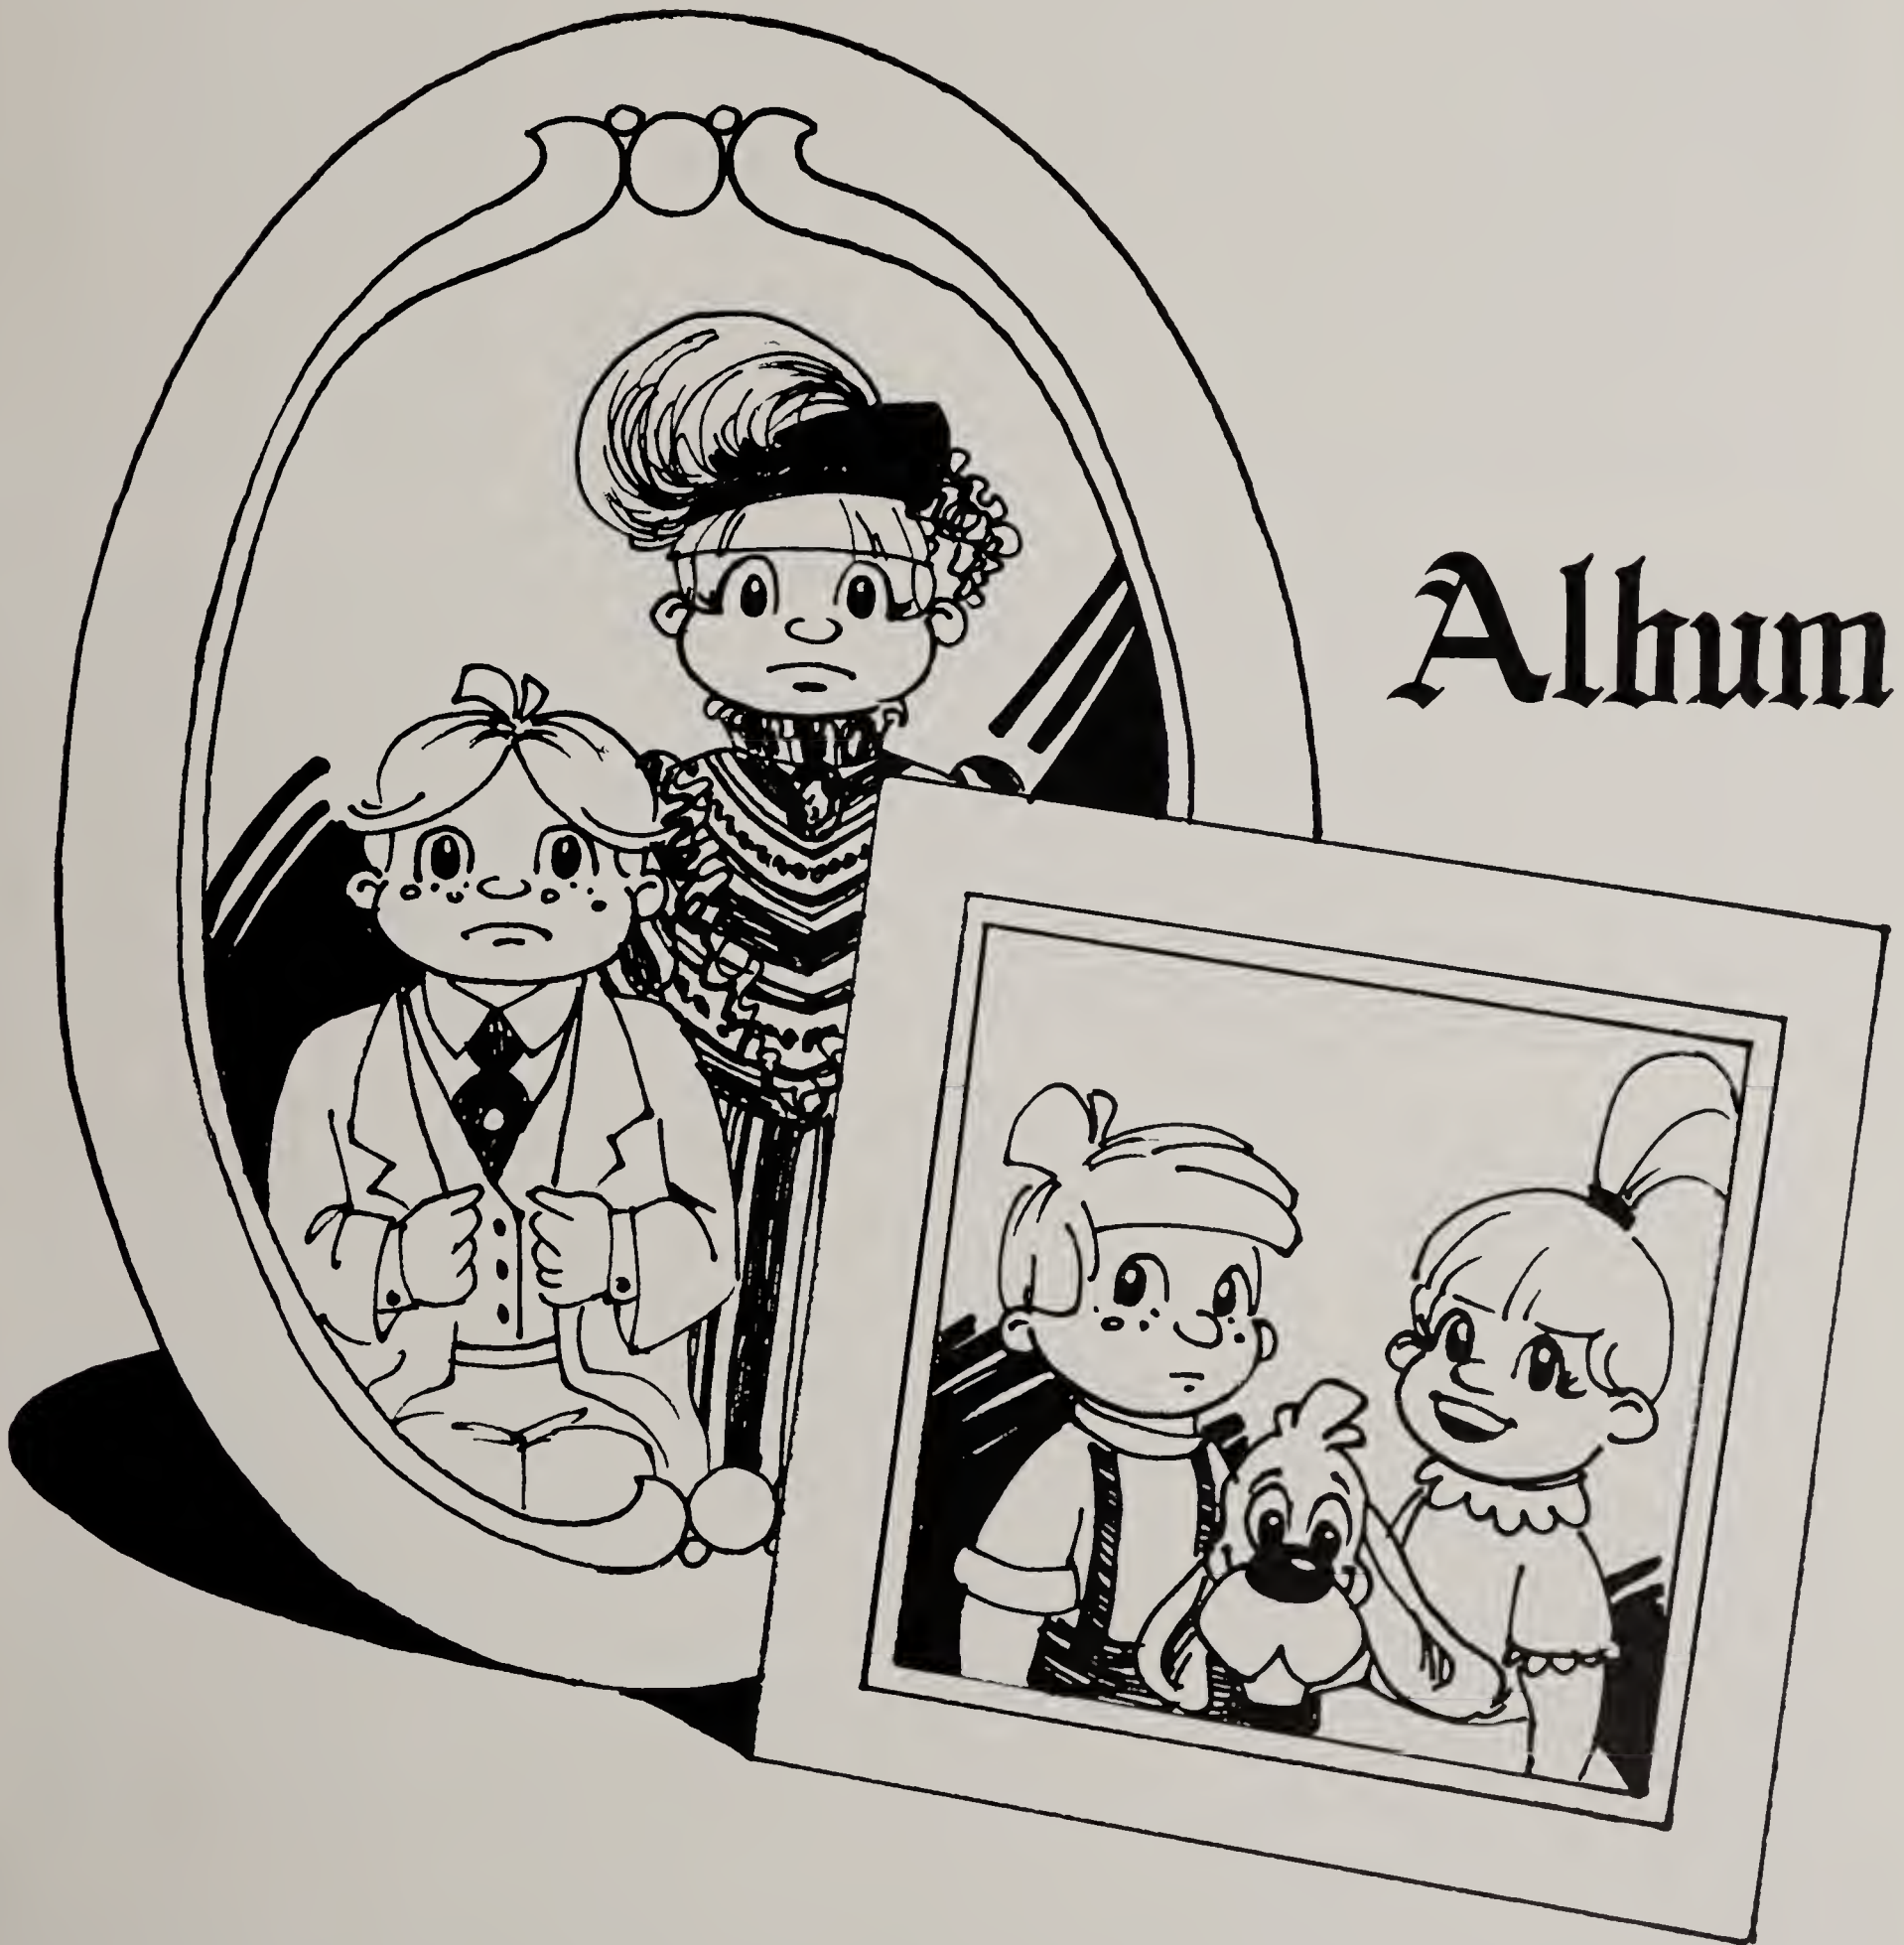

Two gospel teams went out during the summer of 1977. "Sweet Accord" toured Ohio, West Virginia, Virginia, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, North Carolina, Georgia, Tennessee, Kentucky, and Maryland. "Sound Wisdom" toured the eastern and northern states.

2. Sweet Accord (l. to r.) D. Griffith, B. Wilcoxson. (seated, l. to r.) L. Zollinger, S. Griffith, S. Toirac. 3. Sound Wisdom (l. to r.) T. Beckett, R. Wroughton, D. Rank, S. Clydesdale, D. Jodry.

Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; and the years of thy life shall be many. I have taught thee in the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths. When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; and when thou runnest, thou shalt not stumble. Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: keep her; for she is thy life.

Enter not into the path of the wicked, and go not in the way of evil men. Avoid it, pass not by it, turn from it, and pass away.
